CITY IN BRIEF.

Mrs. Nelson Trussler is seriously ill at Big Sandy to New Orleans March 24.

Measles prevail in Indianola to an alarming extent, a large number of the sufferers being children. Abond of $25,000 has been filed in the office of the Secretary of State by R. J. Jackson, President of the Commercial Bank of Union City.

James Hardesty, arrested Saturday for passing counterfeit money, was brought before Commissioner Martindale yesterday and bound over to the Grand Jury in the sum of

There was a meeting of the Trustees of the Insane Hospital yesterday, when arrangements were made for placing a temporary roof over that portion of the hospital destroyed by fire.

The Gospel meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night was of remarkable interest, and a good meeting is expected to-night. C. D. Meigs will lead, and the service will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Two car loads of slate were received from Pennsylvania yesterday by the State House contractors to be used on the new structure. The working force at the State House has been increased to 100 men.

Rev. J. McMullen, of Terre Hante, will lecture at St. Joseph's Church on Thursday evening. His subject will be "Anti-Catholic Prejudices and How Catholics May Meet Them for the Benifit of All Concerned."

The Commissioners of Washington County

General Hord for an opinion as to the legality of such a course.

D. W. Hendricks, of Shelby County, mysteriously disappeared from his home on March 5. His friends are of the opinion that he came to this city, and the police have been notified.

H. C. Smallwood was recommitted to the Insane Asylum yesterday. He was first sent there in March 1877, and was discharged the lat of this month. Since his discharge he has become very violent and indicates a desire to slay nearly every man he meets. Sixteen girls struck for higher wates at Archdescon's Canning Factory, 276 West Washington street, yesterday morning. They claim that their wages had been reduced, the reduction to take effect yesterday, and that after working two or three hours they found that only a pittance could be made, and they determined to quit work.

ARUSEMENTS.

"A BAG BABY," The welcome tendered the return engagement of "A Rag Baby" last night was cordial, both in numbers and acclamation. It was noticeable that a considerable part of the audience were play-goers who had seen the comedy on its former visit in December. Nor did these tail to realize added pleasure. While the cast is identically the same, there are new minor features, while with the n onths of experience the several members of the company have brightened up their several roles. What the play is has already been so fully told in the Sentinel as to need no recounting. Indeed, there is no plot more than to furnish opportunities for illustrating the very grotesque or very delightful characters the playwright has evolved. "Old Sport," the central figure, is one of rare possibilities for mirth-making, and nothing less or more can be said for Mr. Frank Daniels than that be has left no opportunity unimproved. It is one of the very funniest roles ever conceived, and rendered in the happiest manner imaginable. Mr. C. H. Drew as "Tony Jay," amate r druggist, lends graceful actand admirable vocalism to his part. Miss Bessie Sanson gives a more charming "Venus" than before, though that seemed hardly possible, while Miss Louise Eissing. as "Cisirette," and Misses Carrie Lane and Lina Jackson, as companion school girls, they are captivating in song. Miss Helen Reimer, as "Miss Pratt," the boarding school mistress, and Mr. Mark Sullivan, as the "Policeman," do intelligent and ingenious

David Handricks of V work, while Messrs. Conner, Osgood and Stedman are equal to the demands of their

The three remaining performances of this evening, to-morrow evening and to-morrow's matinee constitute a season of exception: 1 | city and collected between $100 and $500 merriment at the Grand. As this is the last opportunity of the season for seeing "A Rag Baby" no one should miss it.

ENGLISH'S OPERA HOUSE.

A large audience witnessed Charlotte Thompson's new version of "Jane Eyre" last night at English's. A great many nad seen the old version of the story played before, and were no doubt abxious to see it in its new dress, as it were. To judge from the looks of gratification on many of the faces and the loud and frequent marks of approval, they must have been agreeably surprised at beholding the new beauties of scenery and action of the play, brought out as distinct as the cut of a diamond on the as distinct as the cut of a diamond on a cane of glass, that others had left unnoticed and untouched. Miss Thompson, as the poor, persecuted orphan, filled the part with so much pathos that more than one pair of eyes were blinded for the time being with tears Mr. Craig, as "Lord Rochester," played the part with becoming dignity. He has a fine stage presence and a voice sonorous and dis tinct. His action is natural and unstrained tinct. His action is natural and unstrained Mr. Wooderson, as "Jacob," kept the audience rippling with laughter whenever he appeared in a scene. His candle-lighting dance was rendered in such a graceful, laughable way as to call for an encore. Mr. Yer rance, as the "Frenchman," was perfect in word and action. Miss Dragon, as the "Mania c' in both make-up and action created a sensation. Her mad laughter, as she sets fire to "Lord Rochester's" bed-chamber, sent a cold chill through the audience. Take sent a cold chill through the sudience. Take it all in all, the star and her admirable support merit liberal patrenage during their stay in our city. To-night "Nell Gwylene" will be produced with Miss Thompson in the title role. The play is a new one 11 is a story of the times of Charles II., and is replete with romance and light comedy. Mr. Craig appears as the "Duke of Richmond."

Neibert, the young man arrested here some time ago at the instance of his step-father on a charge of forgery, and returned to Olathe, Kan., where the alleged desire to build a new Coart House, the old one having been declared a nuisance and torn away by the Board of Health. The Commissioners have requested Attorney crime was committed, is in the city, having been released by the authorities. The evidence, he says, showed that he had been given authority to sign his step-father's name to certain documents.

RAILWAY NEWS.

Steel Rails for the Vandalia-The Illinois Midland to be Sold During the Summer.

Railroad construction in this State, and especially in the southern part, will begin in earnest about April 1.

The traffic agreement formed some time ago between the C., H. and D. and Air Line is proving of great benefit to both roads.

The local agents are still making efforts to rid the city of scalpers, but they evidently don't go about it in the right way, for these gentry are living in the lap of luxury and the impression prevails abroad that ' -y have more 'fluence' than the General Paysenger Agents themselves. Some of the local agents ay that they can do nothing until they get the assistance of the passenger representa atives of foreign lines, and these able persons for some reason or other are not disposed to join hands with their Indianapolis

It is now almost definitely settled that the sale of the Illinois Midland will take place during the coming summer. The indebtedness is climbing higher and higher every day. A railroad man said, yesterday, that $300,000 would be sufficient to place the road in proper condition. Experts, who have examined the property, are of the same opinion. This would include both improvements in the roadbed and rolling stock. There are a large number of persons who still think that the Illinoise Midland will fall into the hands of the Vandalia

The Vandalia folks will in a few days receive a large shipment of steel rails from Pittburg, and the ten miles of road on the Indiana division now laid with iron will be "steeled" at once. Other improvements in the road bed and bridges at certain points along the line will also be made this year. The Vandalia ranks among the best roads in the country already, and a railroad man, who has traveled a great deal, said yesterday that there were very few lines east of the Aileghenys to be compared with it. Not with standing the fact that its Logansport division was exposed to as much bad weather during the past winter as any other road in the State of Indiana, not a single accident was reported from it; all owing to the splendid condition of the road bed, track and equipare a wincome trio, as pretty in person as | ments. The management is justified in feel-

Mysterious Disappearance.

David Hendricks, of Van Buren Township. Shelby County, came to this city last Thursday, in his buggy, to collect some money and pay off a debt. He went north of the and returned, putting up his horse and buggy at Gates & Pray's stables, on East Market. He then started away, saying that he was going to draw his pension. The man whom he was owing called at the stable and asked for him. Since that time Hendricks has not been seen and there are some fears lest he has met with mishap. He is a well known farmer of Shelby County, owns considerable property and has a wife and several
